

Works Cited

- American Cancer Society . “History of Cancer Screening and Early Detection.” American Cancer Society, www.cancer.org/cancer/cancer-basics/history-of-cancer/cancer-causes-theories-throughout-history11.html.
- Briggs, Bill, and Fred Hutch News Service. “Why Some Patients Keep Their Cancer Secret - and How Oncologists Guide Them through That Chosen Seclusion.” Fred Hutch, 29 Aug. 2016, www.fredhutch.org/en/news/center-news/2016/08/why-some-cancer-patients-keep-diagnosis-secret-how-oncologists-guide-privacy.html.
- “Cancer Progress Timeline.” ASCO, www.asco.org/research-progress/cancer-progress-timeline.
- Mulcahy, Nick. “Breast Cancer Timeline: Quiet 100 Years and Then Boom.” Medscape, 29 Jan. 2015, www.medscape.com/viewarticle/838937.
- Stokke, Regine. Regine's Book: a Teen Girl's Last Words. Zest Books, 2014.
- Stone, Miriam R. At the End of Words: a Daughter's Memoir. Candlewick Press, 2003.
- “Timeline: Cancer's History.” Cancer Council, www.cancervic.org.au/cancer-information/children-teens-and-young-adults/for-schools/timeline-cancer-history.
- WINOKUR, STANLEY. “Why We Avoid Telling Patients the Truth.” The Health Care Blog, MATTHEW HOLT, 18 Aug. 2012, thehealthcareblog.com/blog/2012/08/18/why-we-avoid-telling-patients-the-truth-3/.

